

HER EVIDENCE INJURES THAW.

Evelyn Is Forced to Tell of Threat Against Her.

Begs Court to Be Excused from Answering.

Reply Would Incur Animosity of Her Husband.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
WHITE PLAINS (N. Y.) July 15.—Evelyn Nesbit Thaw went on the stand here today to give damaging testimony against her husband, Harry K. Thaw. Her testimony was the strongest point scored so far by the state in its fight to keep Thaw in the asylum for the criminal insane at Matteawan.

When the day's session was concluded an adjournment until July 26 was taken.

For three days the state has been trying to bring out that Thaw threatened his wife's life on one of her visits to Matteawan. The state wished to show irrationally on Thaw's part. Thaw's attorney last failed to show that the alleged conversation at Matteawan was confidential as between husband and wife.

Mrs. Thaw was apprehensive when testifying. She was quoted as saying she testified because of the treatment she received at the hands of the Thaw family, but on the stand she apparently struggled hard not to tell.

"Did Harry say anything to take your life?" she was asked directly by Deputy Attorney-General Clarke.

"Did he at any time say this to you or this in substance: 'I shall have to kill you when I get out of here?'"

APPEALS TO COURT.
Evelyn Thaw turned appealing to Justice Mills. She begged to be allowed not to answer, because she said she knew she would incur Thaw's everlasting animosity, and her attitude indicated that she believed he might carry out his alleged threat. She also urged with some show of feeling that she was still Thaw's wife, and no matter how he had treated her, she did not want to testify against him.

But the court ruled that the only possible grounds upon which she could decline to answer were that it would tend to incriminate her, and he added he did not see how that would be applicable to her situation.

Then she said, in a low voice: "Yes, he did."

"What were his exact words?" demanded Mr. Clark.

"He said: 'When I get out of here I suppose I will have to kill you.'"

"Why did he say that?"

"We were discussing his mental condition, I had asked him what he meant, and he said: 'You know I was very crazy on the night that I shot White. I asked him again and he said: 'You know that I missed White by two minutes on the day before.'"

THAW NOT SURPRISED.
Thaw, when asked about his wife's testimony after court, said he was not surprised at her attitude, but he emphatically denied that he ever threatened her life.

"It is plain to every one that her story is not true," he said. "I never threatened to kill her. First she says one thing and then another."

"Is it true that you made an attempt on White's life on the day before the homicide was committed?" he was asked.

"If I had you would have learned of it before this," replied Thaw.

Anthony Comstock, president of the New York Society for the Suppression of Vice, described his efforts to assist Thaw to get sufficient evidence of White's practice to prosecute him.

Up to within a day or two of the tragedy, this witness said, he saw Thaw and obtained data from him in regard to White's conduct. He was of the opinion that Thaw was sane.

Three more witnesses besides Thaw himself are to testify according to Thaw's lawyer, Charles Morchauer, but the long adjournment was taken so that both sides might have the opportunity of studying the records of Thaw's trials for murder, which are in the possession of Dist. Atty. Jerome.

The state expects to base much of the examination of Thaw on the witness stand upon these records. It has been decided to abandon a physical examination of Thaw by the state's alienists, and to confine the insanity tests by the experts to the mental examination of Thaw as a witness.

WOULD BE GOOD GIRL.
Before leaving White Plains for New York this evening, Evelyn Thaw discussed her testimony.

"If the Thaw family had done the right thing by me, I would never have taken the stand to testify against my husband," she said. "But they would not guarantee me the allowance I asked for when the adjournment proceedings were begun. If they had done that I would have been far away from here today and Harry would have a better chance of getting his liberty."

"I do not know what I shall do now. I have no idea what my future course will be. I must go out and get a living somehow. I can't go back to the stage. My notoriety would prohibit that. The public would say I testified against my husband to make myself notorious. I will try to get work as a model. I can do it, too, I am sure."

"Often I feel sorry I ever saw the stage at all. As a model I can be a good girl and earn enough to keep me. I can hope for nothing from my husband's family. That's my position in a few words."

"If I had not been compelled, I never would have testified against Mr. Thaw. But when my husband cut my allowance to $20 a week, and $20 a month, he left me with many debts on my hands. I used my allowance to clear off my debts, and the money I got is not more than enough to get along on."

The questionable nature of this trial will follow me wherever I may go for years and years. I do not know whether my husband will harm me if he is released. He has made one threat, though, that has terrified me. "Do you think he is insane?" she was asked.

"I cannot answer that question," she replied. "I do not want to."

SHAH OF PERSIA FLEES TO RUSSIAN LEGATION FOR SAFETY.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

TEHERAN (Persia) July 15.—The Shah has just taken refuge in the Russian legation.

A deputation from the British and Russian legations is now on its way to inform the Nationalist leaders of the fact.

TEHERAN (Persia) July 15.—Despite efforts of Gen. Liakhoff, Military Governor of Teheran, to open negotiations with Nationalist leaders, and the agreement on both sides to cease hostilities, street fighting was in progress throughout the day between Persian Cosaks and the Nationalists around Artillery Square and between the Royalist Bakhtiari and the newly-arrived Nationalists and revolutionary Bakhtiari.

Insurgents continue in the ascendancy and, as reinforcements are continually reaching them, the outcome in their favor appears to be foregone.

The Shah remains obdurate and probably will insist upon holding out until the Nationalist guns are trained on the Sultanabad Palace.

Control of the Royalist troops really has passed from the hands of the Shah into those of Gen. Liakhoff, who again today tried to stop hostilities and agreed that the Cosaks should not fire except upon the undisciplined soldiers of the Shah, who were looting houses in the vicinity of Centra Square.

Fighting around the Cosaks' barracks ceased this afternoon, and negotiations for their surrender now are being carried on with Gen. Liakhoff. The Shah's troops are disheartened because of insufficient food and pay.

Fighting today centered around the British legation. A number of royal Bakhtiari, gaining an entrance to the city, took up positions on top of the houses in the vicinity of the legation and the Nationalist camp, which they bombarded with a heavy rifle fire.

The Nationalists responded, and for several hours the British telegraph office and other foreign houses, in which were a number of women, were under fire. During a lull the women were removed to the British legation.

The fighting last night between Cosaks besieged in Artillery Square and the Nationalists who attempted to dislodge them, was so terrific that non-combatants were compelled to seek shelter in cellars, as shells were hurling everywhere.

The Cosaks succeeded in holding their position, and on the withdrawal of the attacking party, opened fire with artillery on the Parliament building. Under cover of this, they made an attack on Nationalist headquarters, but were repulsed by a small force of Bakhtiari who took up a position with a Maxim gun in front of the British legation. So far as known no foreigners are among the killed or wounded.

The telegraph operators, who are sticking to their posts, have the windows of their house barricaded.

THOUSANDS FIGHT.

marched along George street to Helen street, where they made a second stand in front of the British legation. The mounted policemen, and again the members of the constabulary aimed their rifles and fired. The strikers broke. The mounted policemen followed the strikers to the place of the strikers under arrest.

The constabulary received reinforcements, but they retreated down Helen street, arresting several strikers.

The prisoners were handcuffed and taken to the office of the justice of the peace, where they were chained to the banisters.

THREATEN TO BURN.
Within a few moments word of the fighting reached the groups of strikers stationed in other sections of the town and they rushed to the aid of their friends. A large party congregated outside of the office of the justice of the peace and threatened to burn the building unless the prisoners were released. They were dissuaded.

A few minutes after 12 o'clock hundreds of strikers carrying bricks and large stones were on the streets. The storekeepers of McKee's Rocks started to board up the fronts of their buildings, in anticipation of a destructive engagement between the constabulary, deputy sheriffs and company police and the strikers.

It is estimated that between 35,000 and 40,000 men, including many miners, are on a strike throughout Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia. Among these are 14,000 miners employed in the Pittsburgh district. Many of these, it is said, are among the rioters.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
MINNEAPOLIS (Minn.) July 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gov. John A. Johnson suffered a relapse, accompanied by a recurrence of his trouble yesterday. He is ill in his apartment at Aberdeen Hotel, St. Paul. He passed a restless night last night and was unable to go to the capitol today.

Mrs. Johnson said that the Governor expected to resume work by the end of the week. Pending the return of the Governor, nothing definite has been announced concerning an extra session of the legislature.

The Governor was too ill today to be questioned, but it is the general opinion in the capitol that an extra session will be called.

The Governor is resting easily tonight.

CASE DELAYED
BY TOE-NAIL.It's an Ingrocer and Is On Complainant's Foot.Diamond Robbery Case Goes
Over at Pasadena.Appel Banters Justice for Three Hours.

Office of The Times, No. 7 S. Raymond Ave.
PASADENA, July 15.—About 100 citizens of South Pasadena were treated to a merry little farce in Justice Glover's courtroom in the McGonigle building yesterday afternoon, when the "Fritale" Dehn case was called for the preliminary examination. The result of three hours of oratory and banter was the continuance of the case to Saturday morning at 9 o'clock and the increase of Dehn's bail from $200 to $500 cash.

The case was postponed for two days because of the inability of M. D. Porter to appear on account of a sore foot. Dehn, who is charged with attempting to steal a diamond stud from Porter's necktie Monday afternoon, is known to the police under half a dozen different aliases and they say he is wanted in several eastern cities and in Canada for alleged robberies. Justice Glover, who, by the way, is to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of his arrival in South Pasadena with a dinner Saturday afternoon, was "terribly lectured and abused" by Attorney H. H. Appel, who appeared for the prisoner. Appel, finally, in desperation, blurted out: "The court is altogether a fool, but country justices are not supposed to be experts in the technicalities of the law. If they were they would not be country justices."

When the case was called at 2 o'clock, Arthur Vetch, representing the District Attorney's office; A. E. Bagley, official court reporter; W. Behring, in front of whose office at No. 1315 1/2 Mission street, the robbery was attempted; F. T. Drew, the Pacific Electric motorman who first intercepted Dehn; T. J. Smith and Mrs. M. D. Porter, witnesses; Dan L. Sawyer, the deputy marshal who made the arrest after a spirited chase; Constable W. M. Johnston, who swore to the complaint; three officers from the Los Angeles police department; half a dozen detectives and a crowd of curious people were on hand. Everybody there except the man who almost lost his $350 diamond.

Dehn was ushered into the courtroom—that is, often used as a dance hall than it is as a court—and took his seat on the platform. He was handcuffed, but manipulated the "dial" with apparent ease and, difference, wiping the sweat from his face and neck and handling his cigar with ease. All through the long hour of waiting for the appearance of Porter, the prisoner sat and smoked.

When it was ascertained that Porter had started for South Pasadena from his hotel in Los Angeles, but had been compelled through excessive pain in his foot, occasioned by an ingrowing toe-nail, to turn back, the curtain was run up on the little drama. In support of the motion of the District Attorney's representative, Vetch, to have the case continued, an affidavit was drawn up and presented. Attorney Appel roared until the walls of the big hall fairly shook. He declared the affidavit the rankest imposition on justice ever offered in a courtroom, took exception to an additional affidavit offered in support of the motion; interrupted Vetch on an average of every ten words that crossed the young man's lips; stormed at the detectives present as a "bunch of vultures" yesterday, who couldn't track a half-witted alibi on a country road; roared his honor for daring to suggest that possibly the reason Porter could not come was because he would have to change cars, and with "buffaloed, or rather 'eliked,' the whole courtroom.

The affidavit stated that Porter was the complaining witness; and as the complaint was sworn to by Constable Johnston, Appel held that either the constable had sworn to the complaint on mere hearsay evidence or else Porter was not the complaining witness. He expected to see the accused turned loose. He declared that the handcuffs be removed and read from the statutes to uphold his demand. Altogether the entire afternoon was a farce, and after it was over, Appel said: "Well, do you think that I was coming all the way out to this orange grove court and then not have some fun?"

It developed yesterday that Dehn had a confederate with him at the time of his attempted snatching of the diamond. A full description of the confederate has been given to the authorities by Behring, who says that he could identify him in a bunch of 500 men.

PORTUNE FOR HER.
It was learned from Boston under the terms of the will of Lieut. John Downes, U. S. N., late head of the National Sailors' Home at Quincy, Mass., Mrs. Henry W. Mellen of Pasadena, his daughter, is to receive the greater part of his fortune. The income of the estate is left to the widow until her death or remarriage and then it goes to the California daughter.

His son, Lieut. John Downes, U. S. N., is left the sum of $100,000. He is left the property in Boston, together with personal articles goes to the widow, son and daughter. The late Lieut. Downes was one of a long line of naval officers of the same name, who won brilliant honors. His son continued the remarkable lineage in the navy.

STARTLING PYROTECHNICS.
A short-line Pasadena car bowled south from Sierra Vista at forty miles an hour through what the motorman termed "cudgins" at 11 o'clock last night. Just below the section the overboard wire parted and fell to the ground. Through a daring, hissing, maelstrom of electrical pyrotechnics the car dashed, for 100 yards, and then all traffic from Pasadena and San Gabriel valley points east of Sierra Vista was blocked for the rest of the night. Investigation showed that 100 feet of overhead was dislodged by the parting of the wire. A number of the cross arms were blown out of true. Several long spans of the wire almost touched the ground and the north end grounded itself in a dazzling flash of fire. Had the accident happened on the north-bound track, 2000 people would have been stalled by the accident, as it was estimated that that number of people went to Pasadena alone after 11 o'clock on the cars, which were run as often as every five minutes.

THREE TONS OF PLAY.
Apparatus costing $1500 and weighing three and one-half tons, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday for the public playground at Carmelita gardens. Most of the equipment such as the ladders, horizontal bars, rings, etc., will be installed under a large canvas canopy sixteen feet high. While the grounds are to be put in shape as rapidly as possible, Director Harold Ryerson states that the public, and especially juveniles, will not be allowed on the premises.

FREE TEXT BOOKS.
The question of free text books is not to be courted by the recently elected Board of Education for the reason that under a system long in practice, about $12 a year spent on text books and these are given out to the children of parents who cannot afford to buy them. The board is of the opinion that it is all that is necessary, as the books are turned in at the end of each term and are used over and over again, the supply gradually increasing each year.

BIG SCHOOL BUDGET.
Fig. 1 already compiled by the Board of Education indicate that the budget which will be submitted to the County Superintendent of Schools and the Supervisors for next year will be in the neighborhood of $250,000. This amount about $17,000 for salaries. Last year $11,000 was spent for new buildings and $21,000 for salaries and actual running expenses. The additional demand over last year of $10,000 will be for new buildings which are to be opened up, calling for equipment, and for the general growth of the city.

FALLS FROM PONY.
Harry Heck, 11-year-old son of Henry Heck of the California market, is confined to his home with a painfully injured leg. He was riding a pony, bareback, in turning a corner the animal slipped, the boy was thrown and he was caught under the animal. The lad's ankle was sprained and his leg was bruised and cut by the steel rail of the car track.

PASADENA NEWS NOTES.
Richard Campbell, Attorney-General of one of the principal islands of the Philippines, is visiting in Southern California and was recently the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Stuart at the Vista del Arroyo.

It is said that Adolphus Busch has recently purchased of the artist, Henry J. Breuer, a painting of Mt. Breuer in the high Sierras, paying $5000. The picture is the property of Canadian visitors to be entertained here Monday afternoon by members of the Canadian Club and representatives of the Board of Trade.

Work has been commenced on the first of the big building for greater thoroughness.

More than sixty members of Company 1 of the Seventh Regiment today participate in the encampment at Long Beach next week.

Junior Dean Benjamin Stacey and Prof. S. Milliken of Throp Polytechnic Institute are making a thorough tour of Southern California.

CHARMING HOME WEDDING.
Marriage, Delayed for Some Years by Bride's Ill Health, Solemnized at Azusa.

AZUSA, July 15.—A charming home wedding took place yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Mary Fuller on Citrus avenue, when her daughter, Anna L., became the bride of Dr. H. Conrad Bierwirth of Cambridge, Mass.

The ceremony took place in the rustic summer house of the beautiful grounds which were decorated with potted plants, bamboo and Spanish bayonets. The Episcopal service was read by the officiating clergyman was Rev. Mr. Field of Los Angeles.

The bride wore a handsome gown, away gown of imported pongee, with touches of gold and wistaria. Immediately after the wedding breakfast Dr. and Mrs. Bierwirth left by auto for Los Angeles, taking an afternoon train for Santa Barbara, where they will spend sometime at Hotel Potter. They later journeyed leisurely up the coast and then East, reaching their home in Cambridge in time for the opening of Harvard University.

Dr. Bierwirth is a native of Germany. He occupies the chair of German in Harvard College and is the writer of the German grammars which are largely used in the high schools of the United States.

Mrs. Fuller was born in Maryland. The family has resided in Azusa for many years, but during the last time Miss Fuller was in the East or in Europe studying music, or making concert tours. At the beginning of the year she was a musician. Her health failed. She has lived at Long Beach for the past five years, and there her health greatly improved. Her illness delayed for many years the culmination of a romance which began long ago in the Fatherland. There were guests from Los Angeles, Long Beach and Monrovia.

LONG BEACH.
INQUIRIES FOR MISSING CHECK.QUERY OF PACIFIC ELECTRIC CAUSES SURPRISE.

City Apparently Never Cashed It.
East San Pedro Merchants Want
License Fees Returned—Police Are Complicated for Way They Handled
Big Crowd.

LONG BEACH, July 15.—As a result of an inquiry made by the Pacific Electric, a partial investigation by the city officials indicated that a check for $173.25 paid to a former administration has never been cashed, and the city is apparently out that much money.

The check was tendered in payment of the annual per cent levy on the West Third-street franchise. According to the records, the check was received by the City Clerk, presented to the Council and turned over to the Auditing Committee for verification. What became of it after that is not known, as no one cashed it and it has never been returned to the company, although it has a receipt for payment of the amount. The check was issued by the city treasury, however, which is apparently out $173.25. The failure to cash the check was not discovered until recently. The investigation is still in progress.

WANT REFUNDS.
An echo of the annexation of Terminal Island and East San Pedro will be heard in Council next Monday, when merchants of that territory will make a demand upon Long Beach for the return of license money paid for the return of the city. Licenses were due in April, and were paid for a year in advance. The city has not returned the money, but has made for the return of the personal property tax paid the city prior to the court decision. City Attorney Long has the matter under advisement, but has not given an opinion. The parties interested threaten to bring suit if the money is not refunded.

USED EMORY.
Unknown parties on Tuesday night visited the laundries Music and Camille at their homes and stole the goods and put emery in the carburetors and boxes of the two boats and short-circuited the music battery. The emery cut down the power of the boats and damaged the engines seriously, and in consequence Capt. Russell and Mason lost several trips yesterday. The police will make an investigation. The police force was complimented on all sides today for the able and efficient manner in which yesterday's throng was handled. Two drunks were arrested. Five suspicious characters locked up. One black-packet arrested. One lad found nearly $4, and others were rewarded in smaller sums. Four pocketbooks were given to the police today as found from yesterday. From only one were the contents missing. The others were probably dropped by their owners. A woman's purse, stolen from her husband's store, was picked up in the auditorium last night. Only the money was missing.

Turnstile figures of the bath-house show that 4000 persons were in bathing yesterday. Many people picnicked on the beach. Mid-busines and picnic at Ganessa Park. A hundred Elks from the local lodge and the Seventh Infantry Band marched with the Orange parade.

The Pacific Electric Railway to Ganessa Park up Huntington boulevard has been a splendid business and business is constantly increasing. The roads in the Ganessa Park tract are being constructed with gravity. George Montgomery, who was here a year ago, has returned to Southern California to make his home. He formerly lived at Greer, Colo., where he had large land interests.

The Pomona lads of the Boys' Brigade, who were here a week at Balboa Beach, returned home last night after a jolly outing. The boys are planning a picnic at the local cannery will close this week. The pack having been 500,000 cans. Peaches soon be hauled and then, next year, it is expected to be the amount of 1,500,000 cans for these latter fruits.

Coronado Tent City now open.

IN NEW FIELD.
Los Angeles Company Negotiates for Oil-Bearing Land in Santa Monica District.

SANTA MONICA, July 15.—Negotiations for the lease of ten acres in Santa Monica, Cal., have been completed and it is thought the necessary signatures will be secured so that the installation of machinery and boring for oil can be commenced within a few weeks. The property has been subdivided into blocks and lots and the ownership is scattered, not a few of the lots being occupied by bungalows. The company that expects to start this development in a new field is the Security Oil Company of Los Angeles, which is now operating in the Wolfkill field just east of Sawtelle. The negotiations are being conducted by T. R. Babel, president, and W. E. McDonald, manager.

The site selected for the trial well is on Nevada avenue, near the corner of Berkeley street. It was here that H. G. Kist last winter erected a derrick, he having organized the Santa Monica Oil Company. Kist forfeited his lease on the property last year. The Bundy lease in the Westgate subdivision.

Dusto Vacuum Carpet Cleaner

Only Five Dollars
Vacuum carpet cleaning is not new, but with increased knowledge of sanitation its popularity has steadily increased.

The DUSTO Vacuum Carpet Cleaner, as its name implies, is an improved suction device for removing dirt and dust from carpets and rugs. It weighs less than five pounds, and is operated by hand, requiring no electrical attachments. The machine works through a hinged nozzle held on a level with the floor by two springs, and its weight is sustained by a roller while traveling back and forth over the carpet, eliminating all friction. There is nothing to get out of order, and every machine is guaranteed against imperfections of manufacture.
